Yacine Belahcene, singer of Algerian father and Catalan mother, resident in Catalonia, settled in Barcelona after living in Algiers until he was 13 years old. He makes his stage debut with Cheb Balowski. He has captained different formations such as Nour, Rumbamazigha and finally Yacine & the Oriental Groove.

Yacine Belahcene, sails the Mediterranean claiming his musicality without complexes with sonorities that resonate in the ports of Algiers, Marseille, or Barcelona, far away but bathed by the same sea, fleeing from any stereotype built without any basis, fruit of the prejudices of our neighborhoods and cities; with an electric, vibrant staging that surely will not let you be still.
