

TERRAE

Terrae is an amalgam of sounds, rhythms, and songs that exude love for landscapes, for a river, for a land. Andreu Peral and Genís Bagés come together to pay tribute to the place that has seen them grow up, the Lands of the Ebro - a region in the southern Catalonia, named after the Ebro River - They tell us the stories of its people: a humble, hardworking, and steadfast community. The sonic journey proposed by this duo is full of verses that will undoubtedly resonate with us, move us, and make us smile.

Terrae understands tradition as something living and constantly evolving; their proposal blends past and present, where synthesizers, vocal effects, loops, and samplers engage in dialogue with the most primal sounds: the voice and percussion.

A JOURNEY DOWNSTREAM THROUGH THE STORIES AND CULTURAL HERITAGE OF THE TERRES DE L'EBRE.

Nostre gra (our grain), their first LP is a talented and distinctive imprint — the speech of a land, the voice of its traditions. Identity is often judged, and a region can be undervalued or defamed. Forgetfulness is part of centralism, which has consumed in order to dominate. Yet the echo of dignity, embraced by the percussive forest, once again propels a wild and daring cry — one that moves forward with determination, inspiring a clear sky, our fortune, our grain.
