

PAU FIGUERES ANDRÉS BEEUWSAERT

The meeting of pianist Andrés Beeuwsaert and guitarist Pau Figueres presents a musical dialogue of remarkable delicacy and depth. In an intimate setting, the two artists unfold a sonic universe where composition and improvisation coexist effortlessly.

Their music blends the sensitivity of chamber music with the freedom of contemporary jazz, drawing on echoes of classical tradition, Latin American folklore, and Mediterranean sonorities. The result is a concert that invites attentive listening, full of nuance, lyricism, and musical intimacy.

MAR RUBIRALTA
mar@balaioproducciones.com
www.balaioproducciones.com
BARCELONA

CHAMBER CONTEMPORARY JAZZ

PAU FIGUERES

Pau Figueres (Barcelona) is a guitarist and composer whose music blends the expressive depth of flamenco with a refined contemporary language. Classically trained, his playing moves effortlessly between classical, flamenco and modern aesthetics, combining traditional touch with innovative textures and subtle electronic elements. His work reveals a distinctive voice on today's guitar scene, marked by sensitivity, sonic exploration and a balance between tradition and innovation.

ANDRÉS BEEUWSAERT

Andrés Beeuwsaert (Olavarría, Buenos Aires) is a pianist and composer whose music moves between jazz, Latin American popular traditions and a refined contemporary language. His style is marked by lyrical sensitivity, rich harmonic colors and a subtle balance between composition and improvisation. Through a deeply expressive and nuanced approach, he creates sound worlds of great intimacy and poetic depth. Founding member of Aca Seca, over the years, he has shared the stage and studio with some of the most influential figures in Argentine and international music

